

MAKING URBAN PLACES : A THEORY OF URBAN DESIGN VOCABULARY OF URBAN ELEMENTS .

	Places, Nodal Elements, Landmarks.										Routes, Path Elements.										Boundaries, Edge Elements.
Contextual
Experience
direct
enter
connect
terminate enclose
shelter
deflect
contain gather discover separate inform stimulate																																										